The Role

Your responsibilities will include:

Promote and educate the market about PT SMU services and provide value to build brand awareness and create visibility of the firm.

Represent PT SMU across the region, proactively conduct market research, identify the key business decision makers, find and generate qualified opportunities (potential markets, leads, clients) through various efforts; cold calling, cold emailing, networking events, referrals, and online platforms.

Develop an extensive network of contacts and maintain a pipeline of potential clients, manage and update the CRM system with the relevant information, this includes all account interactions from LinkedIn, messages, calls, and emails.

Actively manage sales opportunities by handling prospects and winning the deals through online and face-to-face meetings and presentations to showcase our recruitment and staffing solutions and value proposition, and constant follow-ups to ensure deals closing to generate revenue and to achieve the sales targets and KPIs to contribute to the team's growth.

Convert the leads and establish new and strong business relationships with key decision-makers in the EMEA, APAC, LATAM, and NA markets.

Conduct negotiations to achieve mutually beneficial agreements and to ensure mutual growth of partnerships.

Collaborate with senior management on sales strategy planning and forecasting any business strategy regarding strategically complementary verticals.

Work closely with key internal stakeholders to structure, gain approvals for and execute partnerships.

Collaborate with the team to develop and maintain accurate records of tailored presentations, proposals, quotations, and contracts that align with prospect account requirements, and complete onboarding and legal documents.

Update the senior management throughout the process.

Stay up-to-date with industry trends, market dynamics, competitor activities and strategies to differentiate our offerings, strategies, unique positioning, and selling points of PT SMU, and share the knowledge internally.

Define and develop go-to-market strategies, to generate high-quality inbound leads through marketing.

Maintain accurate and up-to-date sales records, activity reports, and opportunity tracking in the CRM system. Provide regular sales forecasts, performance analysis, and insights to the management team.

Develop and implement customer development strategies that support the company's growth and profitability objectives in international markets to drive business into new and existing markets.

Any additional responsibility as and when required by the company.

Build and nurture strong customer-relationship, including developing trusted relationships with key decision makers within the target accounts, by providing exceptional customer service, understanding their business needs, challenges, and objectives, and offering insights and solutions to address their staffing needs to ensure the level of satisfaction and retention by ensuring the client's expectations are met effectively.

Increase the business value of existing clients, maintain long and successful relationships with existing accounts as well as generate new relationships as a business partner to improve customer experience and to maintain a high level of sales achievement by looking after commercial communications with clients, upsell or cross-sell between the clients, and identify areas in which we can maximize the potential revenue per client.

Conduct research to learn more about the client and the industry in which they operate, have a good understanding of PT SMU services, and gain insights into the client's most urgent business problems or business opportunities while linking how our solutions and services offerings can add client business value.

Liaise and maintain effective communication with clients and partners on existing and forthcoming projects, including the planning and development of plans to complete those projects within the client time scales and to the quality levels expected.

Constantly engage existing clients by keeping them updated on the company's services. Focus on client needs by developing and implementing short-term and long-term objectives, strategies, and initiatives in line with client and company goals and benefits.

Provide suggestions or additional services to increase the number of transactions or average value of sales for each account.

Maintain the firm quality standards and perform SOP, work closely with other teams to achieve the shared goal of growth and accountability for individual targets, and travel to meet with clients.

Create and manage sales plans and its execution as well as carry out all related account management activities to ensure new customer acquisition and account retention to achieve sales targets.

Day-to-day client and account operational management with a solution-oriented approach to every challenge and work stream. Engage in complex deals, negotiation, and decision-making processes to close the deals.

Continuously collect client feedback and provide feedback to the internal team regularly. Provide regular updates, respond to inquiries, and address any client concerns promptly. Manage and collaborate with internal teams as well as at the global level to ensure customer satisfaction. Keep senior management fully informed of account activity and development including client concerns.

Stay up-to-date on competitor activities, and international manpower supply development and market trends to inform business strategies and maintain a competitive edge.

Manage sales achievement tracking as well as prepare periodic reporting of sales achievement to top management.
